

Maria T Sacoto, M.D.
5555 Columbia Pike #209
Arlington, Virginia 22204
(703) 201-7674
Msacoto231@aol.com

Education

06/1998 - 06/2001 *Post Graduate Medical Residency Training
Department of Pediatrics & Child Health
Howard University Hospital
Washington, D.C.*

01/1983 - 03/1991 *Universidad Catolica Santiago de Guayaquil
Faculty of Medical Sciences
Doctor in Medicine and Surgery
Guayaquil, Ecuador*

Professional Experience

10/04- Present *Sacoto Pediatrics' P.C.
Solo practitioner*

06/11-Present Member of credentialing committee of Intotal Health

06/08- Present *VCU Medical School, Richmond Virginia
Assistant Clinical Professor in Dept. of Family Practice*

10/02- 10/2004 *Dr. Saad Alhariri
Care of pediatric patients in a private practice.*

06/02 – 07//2004 *Dr Carlos Guarnizo
Treated pediatric patients in a private practice*

09/1997 - 03/1998 *D.C. General Hospital
Washington, D.C.
Pediatric Externship: Rotation included OPD, Nursery, Ward and Emergency Room.*

04/1997 - 08/1997 *Arcventures Medical Education Center
Washington, D.C.
Tutor: Tutored groups of students preparing for USMLE Steps 1 and 2*

07/1991 - 07/1992 *Sub Centro de Salud de la Federacion de Barrios Suburbanos
Guayaquil, Ecuador
Director of Outpatient Clinic: Supervised staff of four. Managed all pediatrics patients and was responsible for special programs for undernourished children and pregnant women, conducting seminars and providing specific treatment.*

01/1991 - 06/1991 *Clinica Pediatrica
Guayaquil, Ecuador
House Staff: Treated Pediatric patients in an outpatient clinic.*

01/1990 - 01/1991 *Rotation Internship in Hospitals affiliated to the Universidad Catolica de Santiago de Guayaquil
Guayaquil, Ecuador
Internship: Rotations included three months rotations in Pediatrics, Internal Medicine, Surgery, and OB/GYN.*

01/1989 - 01/1990 *Hospital Luis Vernaza
Guayaquil, Ecuador*

Poison Control Department House Officer: Responded to incoming calls from area hospitals and provided the information necessary for proper treatment. Also treated intoxicated patients in the hospital's ER.

05/1988 - 12/1989

Hospital del Niño
Guayaquil, Ecuador

Medical Assistant in Pediatrics Outpatient Clinic: Responsible for taking medical history and vital signs of pediatric patients.

CERTIFICATION

12/1996

Educational Commission of Foreign Medical Graduates Certification

2/2002

Virginia Medical License Active

10/2013

American Board of Pediatrics, Board certified.

2/2008

Business Essentials for physicians, American University, Wash D.C.

MEMBERSHIPS

2004-present

Virginia Medical Society

2002-Present

American Academy of Pediatrics

2006-present

Northern Virginia Pediatric Society

Presentation

04/2001

Grand Rounds on Cultural Sensitivity: Detailed discussion related to physician's involvement with cultural sensitive issues.

06/1998 - 06/2001

various clinical presentations related to pediatric care.

01/1991

Effects of malnutrition in children intellectual coefficient: A retrospective study.
Authors: Maria T. Sacoto, MD and Maria del Mar Ordonez, MD

Community Service

02/1995 - 06/2001

Clinica del Pueblo / Howard University Hospital
Washington, D.C.

Provided physical exams for school age children and adolescents in various Health Fairs. Active participation as medical translator in pediatrics and Adolescent clinics.

01/1984 - 12/1991

Various Service Activities
Guayaquil, Ecuador

Participated in several community service activities including teaching at an adult education center, giving seminars on birth control in rural areas, promoting community and school awareness of health care in rural areas, providing physical exams and child health care in rural areas.

Special Skills

Excellent oral and written skills in English and Spanish.